

Seminar Invitation

Understanding the legal landscape: what psychologists need to know

Lawyers and psychologists often work hand-in-hand. This session will cover key legal issues in workers compensation, family law and criminal law, including how you can guide clients to seek advice and what to expect if you're involved in legal proceedings.

When Tuesday 5 August 2025
6pm for light refreshments | 6.30pm - 8.30pm seminar

Where Tindall Gask Bentley, Level 7, 76 Light Square, Adelaide
OR you can join us online at 6.30pm.

RSVP Click here to RSVP by 29 July

Car parking: on-street car parking may be available, otherwise K-Park at 20 Playhouse Lane is a multi-level car park open until 12.30am.

Radek Stratil
Psychologist

Radek has many years' experience, particularly in workers compensation. He has been a longstanding member of the Liaison Committee between the IPPP and Return to Work SA.

Daniel Weekley
Senior Associate &
Criminal Law Practice
Leader, SA & WA

Daniel will speak on the court's interpretation and use of evidence for trials and sentencing, and will cover the legal options available to people relating to domestic violence.

Deanna Gatto
Senior Associate,
Family Law

Deanna will share about recent parenting cases, and how they show how the Courts are interpreting and implementing changes to the Family Law Act that came into effect last year.

Lianna Ferraro
Senior Associate,
Personal Injury Law

Lianna will discuss how lawyers and psychologists often need to interact and work collaboratively on workers compensation and motor vehicle accident claims.